AQUEDUCT BRIDGE REPAIRS -The es antishment of Camp Alger, near Falls Church, has subjected the Aqueduct bridge, crossing the Potomac, to an unusual strain. It also caused a controrsy between Col. Allen, the engineer officer in charge of the government works in this vicinity, and the Houston Construction Company of Philadelphia. which company had the contract for the reconstruction of pier No. 4 of the Aqueduct bridge. This controversy has necessary steps to make the bridge safe and secure for travel. Arrangements will be made for a resumption of work moany proposed to do this work for $10,000. They were, however, much behind in their work and are said to be losing one for them. MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS. - The pasrage of troops through this city for the South continues, and long trains of Chesapeake and Ohio, Southern, and Baltimore and Ohio railroads (the latter coming via Shepherd's) were on the move the greater part of the night. large numbers of people gathered at the depot to see the soldiers, and some of the latter acted in an unseemly manner and to the evident disgust of all quiet and right thinking people. A Vermont regiment was especially disgusting in its conduct. They seemed Padippines and were insolent in their actions, especial y toward colored women and suppoyed them no little by thirty-five is aboard, sexing them rudely or chasing them from the depot. It is hard to say to PERSONAL.—Mr. W what extremes such "patriots" will go should they set their feet on foreign ground when they manifest such a dis-position to be rule and disagreeable in Miss Amelia Brown, of Alexandria, are their own country and among their

A Missing Man-No traces have been found of M. Frank Firor, secretary and treasurer of the Charles Schneider Baking Company of Washington, who mysteriously disappeared saturday morning. A note sent by Mr. Firor to his brother, George, intimating that he intended to commit saicide, has been turned over to Inspector Mattingly and detectives were at work on the case yesterday. The friends and relatives of the missing man are greatly alarmed and a reward may be offered for information as to his whereabouts, dead or alive. Mr. Fitor was recently connected with the Alexandria steam bakery, but about six weeks ago disposed of his interest in that bakery to his brother.
